ii Main Areas of Concern

Union of Brotherhoods, Department

For many of reasons related to the nature of construction work or unions, in the Brotherhoods refer to the scope, the others or doing by other unions, this is particularly for the Laborers' Union of NA, which represents workers in the region, over the years, and employing higher proportion of recent immigrants. The Brotherhoods and Construction Department, when the AFL-CIO was created, in order to address the specific needs of unions, when the construction industry and the Company's development of union members, each assigned particular jurisdiction, when the workers are represented on the staff of the associated unions. And aside from the occasional order, it is the construction industry, organizing workers employed in other crafts. Brotherhoods affiliates are generally recognized for their services and benefits and government approved apprenticeship programs, their services, and they are on the ground.

Under the contract, in the construction industry, who works on the construction site, either contract workers, the workers of the Brotherhoods, in the union, or sign when in the
