

Mu Kappa 2017/18 annual report

Submitted on June 11, 2018, at <http://www.gammathetaupsilon.org/chapter-report-form.html>

President

Kari B. Jensen

dent

Veronica Lippencott

change. He later gave a talk to students and faculty titled, 'From Streetscapes to

- 3) On November 2, 2017, Mu Kappa helped the Department of Global Studies and the student club Get Global organize a diversity dinner focusing on the aftermath of the devastating hurricanes in Puerto Rico. This event promoted geography by bringing together a diverse group of students and faculty to learn about Puerto Rico from professor Zilkia Janer and student Adriana Galarza, who both have family ties to Puerto Rico, and by encouraging all attendees to donate to AAG's Hurricane Relief Fund.

"We have submitted a minimum of two posts this academic year to the Gamma Theta Upsilon International Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/GammaThetaUpsilonInternational/>. (Summaries and photos of chapter news and activities are particularly welcome, but first obtain permission of the GTU members described in the post and shown in the photo). The dates when we posted material on the GTU International Facebook posts are as follows:"

Mu Kappa postings to the GTU International Facebook page:

11/22/17: Robin Leichenko's guest lecture, Geography Awareness Week.

11/22/17: Mu Kappa board members together with Robin Leichenko.

05/14/18: Mu Kappa initiates celebrate with acrobatics at the initiation ceremony.

06/07/18: Mu Kappa joins GTU's "Textbooks for Africa" drive and ships out seven boxes of books.