Resolution: Solicitor Violations

Whereas, the school parking lot and residence halls are littered with flyers and other media from outside companies such as local bars;

Whereas, It is illegal to promote any business on campus unless proper permission has been obtained according university policy;

Whereas, the littered flyers in parking lots and residence halls create potentially serious distractions for Hofstra community members;

Let it be resolved, any person caught on campus soliciting these flyers without permission shall be issued a summons as well as be put on a new watch list.

Let it be further resolved, that if the solicitor is caught more than once, the Nassau County Police Department will be called. The person will be detained and issued a summons from the local authorities.
